

Ill. woman charged in crash that killed 3

GARDNER, Ill. - Authorities have upgraded charges against a 43-year-old Streator woman in a crash that killed a mother and her two young children in northeastern Illinois.

Grundy County State's Attorney Sheldon Sobol tells WBBM Radio that Ann Marie Getz of Streator was charged Friday with four counts of aggravated DUI.

The crash Thursday night killed 27-year-old Amanda Jahn of Dwight and her two children, 3-year-old Ryan and 1-month-old Kaitlyn.

Grundy County Sheriff Terry Marketti says Getz has prior alcohol-related traffic arrests. She is in intensive care and under police guard, and it's not clear if she has an attorney.

Her bond is set at $1 million.
